

LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 29.

For this section warmer, fair weather, winds becoming southerly; warmer and fair on Friday.

WENT TO RICHMOND—Lee Camp, headed by a drum corps and accompanied by large numbers of citizens, both ladies and gentlemen, left here on the early train this morning, to be present and take part in the Lee monument unveiling ceremonies in Richmond.

Today the city is almost deserted. Many of the municipal offices are closed, the officers being in Richmond. Among those who went were the Mayor, Auditor, Treasurer, City Sergeant, Clerks of the Courts, Commissioners of Revenue, Tax Collectors, gas officers, Commonwealth's Attorney, several members of the City Council, etc. The city was left in charge of Deputy Sergeant B. B. Smith, who is expected to run the town till the return of his superior officers.

Every train that has left here since Tuesday evening has been crowded with passengers on their way to see the unveiling and to attend the "great assembly."

DECORATION DAY—To-morrow, decoration day, will be observed here by the sowing of the graves in the Federal cemetery with flowers, &c. As stated yesterday, a delegation of Union Veterans from Washington will come here who, with a number of citizens, will take part in the ceremony. Hon. S. S. Yoder, of Ohio, will deliver an address on the occasion.

The order of exercises at Arlington commences with a national salute at 12 m. by Light Battery C, Field Artillery. Instrumental music will be by the Marine Band and vocal music by the Marine Chorus. The procession will form at 12 m. in front of the Arlington Masses, headed by the Marine Band, and will then march to the tomb of the "unknown," where the band will play a dirge, after which the music will be continued by the main road to the cemetery, when the procession will separate and proceed to the decoration of the graves.

FRATERNAL VISIT—The members of Marley Escampment, accompanied by Patriarch McCaughey, of Virginia, accepted an invitation from Fred D. Stewart Escampment of Washington to visit them on Tuesday last. They were met at the depot by a committee who escorted them to their hotel, where they witnessed the conferring of the Royal Purple degree in an impressive and instructive manner, also the election of four new members and the reception of applications of seven more, after which they were escorted to the blue room where they were handsomely entertained with refreshments and speeches by Patriarch McCaughey, State J. T. Given, and many other prominent old fellows. The Patriarchs then returned to the encampment room where business was transacted, after which the visitors returned home much pleased with their trip.

RETURNED—Mr. J. C. Nightingill, janitor of the Market building, who left here yesterday morning for Richmond to attend the Lee monument ceremonies returned to this city at an early hour this morning having spent but a few hours in Richmond. He reports that since he was there in 1781 (?) all the people he knew then have either died or moved away, that the place is so changed that he did not know it; that he could not see the city for the houses and that such a sight of flags he never beheld. He says he could get nothing to eat and drink, though he had money, nor a place to rest his weary head; so being tired he boarded a train that left Richmond about midnight and returned to his home where he is better acquainted.

DIDN'T GO—Mr. William Brown, ex-Superintendent of Police, was accosted on the street this morning by an acquaintance, and to the interrogatory why he didn't go to Richmond replied, in substance, that for many a weary year he had steered clear of everything in the way of excursions, and had he attended the unveiling ceremonies today the temptation to give vent to one of his former yells (hurray for Jeff Davis, Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson, &c. Yankee!) would have been irresistible, and he would have returned home hoarse or with a sore throat. So upon reflection he concluded to keep aloof from the temptation.

PERSONAL—Rev. Dr. Philip Slaughter is quite sick at his home on Cedar Mountain, in Culpeper county.

Rev. J. S. Gardner is in the city to-day on his way from the St. Louis conference, to his home in Charlestown, W. Va.

Mrs. Wm. H. Talbot, of this city, is visiting friends in Petersburg.

Mr. Malcolm J. Smith left here this evening for Duluth, Minn., and will make his home in West Superior, Wis., where he has a position awaiting him in the insurance business. His many friends here wish him success and a pleasant journey.

ACCIDENT IN RICHMOND—An accident on the Petersburg bridge in Richmond last night delayed the arrival of delegations. As the 6:15 train for Washington on the Richmond, Fredericksburg, and Potomac Railroad ran out on the bridge, the first section of the regular train from Petersburg on the Richmond and Petersburg road collided with it. The engines of both trains were badly damaged and Engineer Murray, of the Washington train, had his leg broken. None of the cars was derailed. The accident delayed traffic for several hours.

POLICE REPORT—Last night was clear and mild with one prisoner and two lodgers at the station house.

Justice May presided at the Mayor's office to-day and had but one case before him—that of Joe Wilkins, colored, arrested by Officer Davis for an assault on Frank Neal. He was fined $5.

Proceedings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.

SENATE.

Mr. Stewart, rising to a question of personal privilege, sent to the clerk's desk and had read a statement by Major Powell, director of the Geological Survey, in reference to a resolution recently offered by him. Major Powell speaks of the movement as one instigated by land sharks and speculators for the purpose of "gobbling up the irrigable lands and establishing a sort of hydraulic feudal system." Mr. Stewart said Major Powell had used more than half of the appropriation in vast and expensive surveys, of no practical use for the object in view; and he intimated that Major Powell had enormous power in both houses from his giving employment to a lot of young men, the sons and relatives of members of Congress, and that he kept an enormous lobby in Washington to control the action of Congress. This vast bureau of geology and mineralogy was nothing (he said) but a mass of humbug and foolishness—"a great lying-in hospital for lame ducks."

Mr. Gorman defended Major Powell. It was ordered that the adjournment to-day shall be until Monday next.

Mr. Edmunds introduced a bill to prevent the issuing of liquor licenses within one mile of the Soldiers' Home.

The bill for a city postoffice in Washington was passed.

The Senate bill subjecting imported liquors to the provisions of the laws of the several States was then again taken up.

HOUSE.

Mr. Rowell gave notice that he would on Tuesday next ask the House to consider the McDuffie-Turpin contested election case.

The House then went into committee of the whole on public building bills.

Mr. Miliker, of Maine said that two republican bills would be called up and then one democratic bill.

Mr. Mills thought that this arrangement was unfair and that the committee should alternate between the two sides.

Mr. Edmunds, of Virginia, said that when he first came to Congress he had introduced a bill for a building at Roanoke, and had pressed it before the committee and received gracious promises; but also they were only promises to the ear. To-day he found himself in the position of the Biblical animal which fell between two bales of hay. His constituents wanted to know why he was not in the city of Richmond to do honor to the great Lee; and he would have been there had it not been for the fact that the day before yesterday Mr. Miliker had told him that his Roanoke bill would unquestionably be called up to-day. But where was it? And yet here he was missing the glorious old Confederate time in Richmond, on the statement of the chairman (laughter).

Among the bills favorably laid aside was that of $150,000 for Norfolk, Va.
